4.5.2 COMPOSITION OF A PATROL

A patrol consists of :

- one patrol leader:
- three (3) patrol members

The final composition of a patrol, including the identity of the patrol leader, must be announced to the Organizing Committee no later than 18.00 hrs the day before the competition. After this time and up to one (1) hour before the start, only changes due to illness or accident to a patrol member will be accepted.

4.5.3 PARTICIPATION

Each nation may enter two patrols (Men) and one patrol (Women).

4.5.4 RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PATROL LEADER

The patrol leader is responsible for:

- A. insuring that the rules are known and applied by the members of his patrol
- B. insuring that the patrol reports for the start on time
- C. insuring that the patrol is in possession of the required equipment
- D. directing the firing as described at 5.5.12.

4.5.5 DRAW OF START NUMBERS

The draw for Women will take place in one group, which will be Group 1.

The draw for Men will be organized in two groups: Groups 2 and 3.

- Nations entering only one patrol can choose the group in which they wish to start
- Nations with two patrols must enter a patrol in each group

The starting order is Group 1, followed by Group 2 and Group 3.

4.5.6 DRESS

In accordance with IBU Rules but uniform for each nation. A patrol whose members' racing suits are not uniform will not be authorized to start. Headgear, gloves and ski boots can be different.

4.5.7 EQUIPMENT

- A. Skis, boots and ski poles: must comply with IBU Rules.
- B. Start numbers - Bibs: All members of a patrol shall wear an identical start number, the patrol leader using the red bib (relay), other team members wearing green, yellow and blue bibs.

CISM SPECIFIC REGULATIONS FOR SKIING

Edition 2010

4.5.9 EQUIPMENT CONTROL

The day before the competition, a voluntary control of weapons is to be offered by the organizer.

On the competition day, each patrol must report at the starting control point at least fifteen (15) minutes prior to its starting time where officials will conduct:

- an identity control of each patrol member
- an equipment check and skis marking in accordance with IBU Rules
- a control and marking of weapons in accordance with IBU Rules.

After the competition : skis and rifles will be controlled in accordance with IBU Rules.

4.5.10 START

- Patrols start at intervals of one or two minutes, according to the Technical Jury decision.
Before the start, the patrol leader will organize in what sequence his members will be running from the start. He will also organize the distribution of equipment among the patrol members.
- Start takes place with the patrol in one row on the same track. The starter rests his hand on the shoulder of the first member of the patrol and at the word « Go » removes his hand.
- Should a false start occur in spite of this precaution, the starter shall order the patrol back by saying the word « Back ». All members of the patrol must move their feet behind the starting line before making a fresh start.

4.5.11 MARKING OF THE COURSE

The course shall be marked in accordance with IBU Rules.

4.5.12 SHOOTING

Each patrol in turn shoots at a shooting range, a range official indicating the target group to be used. The patrol leader does not shoot but gives orders and directs the firing for each marksman. The shooting may begin only after the three marksmen have assumed a prone position. Each marksman may fire only at his own target until it is hit or he has fired all three (3) rounds. The shooting time is not subtracted from the running time.

A. Shooting ramp dimensions

The shooting ramp must be at least 7.5 m wide and identical for each patrol.

B. Target

One prone position biathlon target as per IBU Rules is provided for each patrol member, except for the patrol leader. The target must be placed in such a way that there is a direct straight line from the shooting point of each patrol member to his target.

C. Ammunition

Each competitor is equipped with at least three (3) rounds in the spare round compartment of the magazine or the spare compartment of the rifle. All magazines must be empty.

D. Firing

- All rounds must be loaded one by one, by hand.
- Not loaded directly from a magazine.

E. Shooting sequence

The marksmen fire in succession, one at a time, following the orders given by the patrol leader, in the proper sequence :

- Marksman on the right
- Marksman in the middle
- Marksman on the left.

4.5.13 COURSE AND FINISH REGULATIONS

A. Ski exchange:

Ski exchange may take place among members of a patrol.

B. Close formation:

During the competition and at the finish, patrol members must remain in close formation. All four members must cross the finish line within a 30 second interval between the first and last members of the patrol.

C. Overtaking:

Edition 2010

A patrol being passed by another patrol must step aside at the first call for « Track » if it cannot increase its speed and leave the overtaking patrol behind. The overtaking patrol must not, under any circumstances, be impeded. A patrol is allowed to yell « Track » only when members are in a close formation.

D. Withdrawal:

The nearest control point and the officials at the finish line must be notified if a patrol withdraws from the competition.

4.5.14 PROHIBITIONS FOR NON-COMPETING PERSONS

It is forbidden for spectators, team officials and reserve athletes to precede or follow the patrol on the course.

4.5.15 OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE - SUPPLIES

Must be in accordance with IBU Rules.

4.5.16 COMPETITION TIME, RESULTS AND PLACINGS

A. Moment of Finish:

The patrol finish time is taken when the last patrol member passes the finish line.

B. Competition time:

The competition time, i.e. the elapsed time between the start of the first member of the patrol and the finish of the last member, including the time spent at the shooting range and all penalties (art 5.5.18), constitutes the final time.

C. Placings:

The placings of patrols shall be decided by using the final time obtained by each patrol.

4.5.17 SHOOTING CANCELLATION

In the case of bad weather, the Competition Jury may decide to cancel the shooting during the competition. The time elapsed between entering and leaving the shooting range must therefore be recorded by the Organizer for each patrol, in the case of cancellation of the shooting.

If this occurs, the time used on the shooting range will be deducted from the competition time.

4.5.18 PENALTIES

A. One Minute Penalty: A time penalty of one minute shall be imposed on a patrol for :

- (1) each missed shot
- (2) a patrol member firing a shot before all three members of the patrol are in a prone position
- (3) firing before being ordered by the patrol leader
- (3) all three patrol members not remaining in the prone position until all targets are hit or all rounds have been fired.

B. Two minutes penalty: Every round not fired if the athlete recommences skiing before he has fired all necessary shots.

C. Three minutes Penalty: A time penalty of three minutes shall be imposed on a patrol for not following the shooting sequence as specified at 5.5.12

D. Disqualification: A patrol shall be disqualified for :

- (1) not giving the right of way at the first call "Track" and thus blocking the overtaking patrol
- (2) a patrol member firing more than three rounds
- (3) the patrol leader carrying a rifle at the start, shooting range or finish line
- (4) crossing the finish line with more than 30 seconds time interval between the first and last members of the patrol.
- (5) if the rounds are loaded from a magazine.
